Naperville Writers Group Inaugurates Literary Series With Reading by Greg Stolze

August 24, 7 to 9 pm at Barnes and Noble in Bolingbrook

Naperville, IL – In celebration of its 20th birthday, the Naperville Writers Group will inaugurate a series of literary evenings with an event featuring Greg Stolze. Greg has written and published six novels, in addition to his millions of words on various role playing games. His most notorious work to date has been coauthoring Unknown Armies with John Tynes, a book that prompted reader Ken Finlayson to say, "It's not just a book, it's a virus. Reading the book infects you. The symptom is, you see it reflected everywhere."

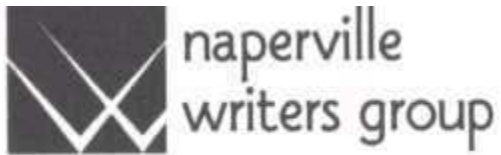

In addition to Greg, other members of the Naperville Writers Group will read their prose and poetry, and time will be provided for members of the public to read during open mic.

The event will be held on Friday, August 24th from 7 to 9 pm at the Barnes and Noble at the Promenade Center in Bolingbrook, 631 E Boughton Road. The public is invited and the event is free. If you would like to read, please arrive early and sign up.

Future Naperville Writers Group events will be held once a month at the Bolingbrook Barnes and Noble. These readings will feature Naperville Writers Group members and other local authors. Each evening will provide open mic time for members of the public to read.

Since its founding in 1987, the Naperville Writers Group has served scores of members of all ages. Members develop their writing skills through thoughtful, positive and useful critiques. Its members come from throughout Chicago's western suburbs and range from published, award-winning writers to those seeking an outlet for their interest. Naperville Writers Group members write a large variety of genres including memoirs, novels, poetry, creative non-fiction and many more. The group welcomes visitors to our weekly
