Naperville Writers Group Literary Series Continues With Reading by Kristin LaTour

September 28th, 7 to 9 pm at Barnes and Noble in Bolingbrook

Naperville, IL – The Naperville Writers Group continues its series of literary evenings with an event featuring Kristin LaTour. Kristin is a poet and a professor at Joliet Jr. College where she teaches composition and literature. A recent graduate of the Stonecoast MFA program, she has published poems in several regional journals and has a chapbook titled "Town Limits; Red Beaver Lake, Minnesota" out from Pudding House Press. Her first book of poems, Braid, is currently seeking a publisher.

In addition to Kristin, other members of the Naperville Writers Group will read their prose and poetry, and time will be provided for members of the public to read during open mic.

The event will be held on Friday, September 28th from 7 to 9 pm at the Barnes and Noble at the Promenade Center in Bolingbrook, 631 E Boughton Road. The public is invited and the event is free. If you would like to read, please arrive early and sign up.

Future Naperville Writers Group events will be held once a month at the Bolingbrook Barnes and Noble. These readings will feature Naperville Writers Group members and other local authors. Each evening will provide open mic time for members of the public to read.

Since its founding in 1987, the Naperville Writers Group has served scores of members of all ages. Members develop their writing skills through thoughtful, positive and useful critiques. Its members come from throughout Chicago's western suburbs and range from published, award-winning writers to those seeking an outlet for their interest. Naperville Writers Group members write a large variety of genres including memoirs, novels, poetry, creative non-fiction and many more. The group welcomes visitors to our weekly meetings on the North Central College campus in Naperville. Further information about the Naperville Writers Group is available at www.napervillewritersgroup.org.
