Naperville Writers Group to Present a Poetry Reading for National Poetry Month

Naperville, IL -- April is National Poetry Month. As part of the celebration, the Naperville Writers Group will hold a poetry reading on April 19th from 3 pm to 5 pm at Anderson's Bookshop, 123 West Jefferson in Naperville. Naperville Writers Group members will read their own poems and selections from their favorite poets.

Members of the public are invited to participate. If you'd like to read at the event, come 15 minutes early and sign up for Open Mike.

The Academy of American Poets established National Poetry Month in 1996, to increase public awareness of the art of poetry, living poets, and our poetic heritage. Since then this month long, national celebration of poetry has grown to be the largest literary celebration in the world.

Naperville Writers Group is a not-for-profit organization open to all adults. Members develop their writing skills through thoughtful, positive and useful critiques. Our members come from throughout Chicago's western suburbs and range from published, award-winning writers to those seeking an outlet for their interest. Wendy Teller, 630-527-6206, Communications Coordinator, can provide further information about the poetry events. Further information about the Naperville Writers Group is available at www.napervillewritersgroup.org.
