Naperville Writers Group Literary Series Continues With Reading by Marilyn Griese

September 26th, 7 to 9 pm at Barnes and Noble in Bolingbrook

Naperville, IL – The Naperville Writers Group’s next literary evening will feature author and poet Marilyn Griese, the author of When the World Changed, A Revolutionary Peace. The book, based on her travels to the Near and Middle East, is an interplay of vivid photos and Scriptural references that tell the story of Jesus in a unique way. Griese's poetry ranges from light hearted spoofs to serious social issues. She is included in Baby Blessings and House Blessings, anthologies by June Cotner, and in Pebble and various newspapers. Griese received an Honorable Mention for Paradise Lost from Poets and Patrons and was a finalist for a Naperville Cammy Award in 1996 for her video of excerpts from the Dalai Lama's closing speech to the Parliament of World Religions in Chicago's Grant Park.

In addition to Marilyn Griese, members of the Naperville Writers Group will read their prose and poetry, and time will be provided for members of the public to read during open mic.

The event will be held on Friday, September 26th, from 7 to 9 pm at the Barnes and Noble at the Promenade Center in Bolingbrook, 631 E Boughton Road. The public is invited and the event is free. If you would like to read, please arrive early and sign up.

Future Naperville Writers Group events will be held once a month at the Bolingbrook Barnes and Noble. These readings will feature Naperville Writers Group members and other local authors. Each evening will provide open mic time for members of the public to read.

Since its founding in 1987, the Naperville Writers Group has served scores of members of all ages. Members develop their writing skills through thoughtful, positive and useful critiques. Its members come from throughout Chicago's western suburbs and range from published, award-winning writers to those seeking an outlet for their interest. Naperville Writers Group members write a large variety of genres including memoirs, novels, poetry, creative non-fiction and many more. The group welcomes visitors to our weekly meetings on the North Central College campus in Naperville. Further information about the Naperville Writers Group is available at www.napervillewritersgroup.org.
