Naperville Writers Group Literary Series Continues With Reading by Scarlett Dean

October 31, 7 to 9 pm at Barnes and Noble in Bolingbrook

Naperville, IL – The Naperville Writers Group’s next literary evening will feature novelist Scarlett Dean. Dean has been a true horror and mystery fan since childhood, always creating her own dark worlds and characters.

Dean is an avid reader who is always looking for the really good scare. As a full time author, she has four published novels with a fifth due out in early 2010. In addition, she has published her own quarterly magazine of other author’s works in fiction, non-fiction and poetry.

Dean has three children, and a Siberian Husky who is more like a fourth child than a pet. Of course her characters are practically family when she’s writing a book, often keeping her awake at night. “Being a writer allows you to get away with hearing voices without being committed!”

In addition to Scarlett Dean, members of the Naperville Writers Group will read their prose and poetry, and time will be provided for members of the public to read during open mic.

The event will be held on Friday, October 31, from 7 to 9 pm at the Barnes and Noble at the Promenade Center in Bolingbrook, 631 E Boughton Road. The event is free and open to the public. Everyone is invited to come in Halloween costumes and if you would like to read, either scary or non-scary stories or poems, please arrive early and sign up.

Future Naperville Writers Group events will be held once a month at the Bolingbrook Barnes and Noble. These readings will feature Naperville Writers Group members and other local authors. Each evening will provide open mic time for members of the public to read.

Since its founding in 1987, the Naperville Writers Group has served scores of members of all ages. Members develop their writing skills through thoughtful, positive and useful critiques. Its members come from throughout Chicago's western suburbs and range from published, award-winning writers to those seeking an outlet for their interest.
